

Carol Krolicki MSN.Ed, RN
108, Saddle Creek Ct ,Greer ,SC29651
Tel:843-557-4413
krolickc@uscupstate.edu

Education

Master's of Science Nursing Education 2016
Western Governors University
Thesis: Heart Failure Education: The Rationale for the Provision of Safe Effective Quality Nursing Care.
Chair K.Purcell-Houck PhD,MSN,MHA,RN
Bachelor's of Science Nursing 2015
Western Governors University

Licensure

South Carolina , RN, 97417R, expiration Date April 30,2026

Certification Professional Associations

American Association of Critical Care Nurses (AACN) Current Ambassador
Former Chapter President
Association of periOperative Registered Nurses Current
American Association of Neurological Nurses (AANN) former member
American Association for Heart Failure Nurses (AAHFN) former member

Appointments

Nursing Instructor 2021
Mary Black School of Nursing
University of South Carolina Upstate
Spartanburg, South Carolina
Nursing Instructor
Ecpri University Greenville SC
Nursing faculty in LPN program with clinical and classroom instruction 2016

Other Positions and Employment USA

Prisma Health System Greer Memorial Hospital

RN PACU

Feb 2018-April 2021

• Recovery of post procedure and surgical patients including orthopaedic, general surgery, urology, OB-Gyn and plastic surgery

St Francis Downtown Hospital, Greenville SC

May 2017-Feb 2018

RN GI Endoscopy Department

• Operated in all aspects of Endoscopic patient care, including pre-procedure preparation, endoscopy on scope side, documentation, and post procedure recovery areas of department

Greenville Health System Heart Failure Program, Greenville SC

Heart failure Nurse Navigator

December 2015 -2016

- 700 bed acute care facility, developed and implemented educational programs and compliance strategies for patients and professional hospital staff, analyzed data to evaluate outcomes
- Developed, coordinated and marketed innovative collaborative strategies to enhance success in preventing readmissions

Medical University South Carolina (MUSC) Stroke program, Charleston SC

RN Speciality Coordinator

January 2013-November 2015

- 700 bed Acute Care Facility, Comprehensive Stroke Center. Developed improvement processes, implemented training programs, collected and analysed data, as an integral part of attaining comprehensive stroke certification.
- Coordinated education and training of Brain Attack Team nurses. Leadership role in the stroke program, working with an interdisciplinary professional team. Continually monitoring to ensure compliance with quality measures

MUSC Neuroscience Department and Cardiovascular Center, Charleston SC

RN Neuro-intermediate acute care tele-monitored unit

March 2009-January 2013

- Acute care/complex neurosurgery and stroke patients. Implementation in opening of neuroscience acute care unit, implemented nursing driven improvement projects
- Mentored new graduates, participated in nursing research. Represented MUSC at nursing conferences, presenting posters, co-authored and implemented protocols

RN Cardiovascular Unit telemetry unit

October 2007-March 2009

- Acute care cardiac procedural unit, participated in the introduction of Epic EHR system, mentoring staff, and trialing of new medical equipment. Collaborated with cardiology interdisciplinary professional team

Aureus Nursing Agency, Omaha, NB

RN Medical-Surgical telemetry unit

June 2007-October 2007

- Agency travel assignment requiring rapid orientation and comprehensive nursing knowledge for diverse patient population

Low Country Cardiology, Charleston SC

RN Cardiology Practice

January 2007- June 2007

- Coordinate cardiology patient care, read and reported electrocardiographs under the supervision of cardiologists, organized and developed office improvement projects, directed medical assistants and licensed practical nurses

Roper St Francis Bon Secours, West Ashley SC

RN Surgical Intermediate Care Telemetry unit

January 2006-January 2007

- 90 bed acute care facility, diverse surgical patient population including thyroid, spinal, major abdominal surgery. Coordinated and delegated care on a fast-paced surgical unit

Trident Medical Center, North Charleston SC

RN Progressive Care Medical /Surgical unit

January 2005-January 2006

- 500 bed acute care facility in Progressive Care Unit of a diverse patient population including post cardio-pulmonary surgery, cardiology and acute medical conditions attained certifications in ACLS, BLS, (current) TNCC, PALS

Pitt County Memorial Hospital, Greenville NC

RN Cardiac and Surgical Intermediate Units, Radiology April 2002-January 2005

- 700 bed acute care facility, cardiac intermediate monitored unit, pre post procedure, including acute and chronic cardiac population. SIU, monitored surgical intermediate unit, including trauma and diverse patient population. Radiology department monitored patients during procedures, provided conscious sedation during vascular and other invasive procedures

Employment Canada

Moncton Hospital, Moncton, New Brunswick, Canada

March 1997-April 2002

Staff Nurse Medical Surgical and ER

- 400 bed acute care facility experience in Cardio-pulmonary and Vascular surgery unit.
- Certified in care of Central Lines, Epidural Catheters, Venipuncture, and Chest tubes.
- Preceptor for BSN student from University of New Brunswick

Employment United Kingdom

England February

1977- 1997

Long Term Care, Geriatrics, Midwifery, Ambulatory Care,OR

- Diverse career including care of obstetric patients, certification as a midwife, hospice care, geriatric patient population, operating room and ambulatory care experience
- Management experience and training, nursing examiner student practicum for Royal College of Nursing, developed and implemented team nursing and care plans, introducing utilization of nursing diagnosis to unit

USA

USC Upstate

Teaching Activities

University of South Carolina Upstate

2020 -present

Nursing Faculty

- Clinical nursing instructor for 4-year pre-licensure BSN program NURS 320P,NURS 330P

Professional development

- Completed online teaching certificate October 2020
- Participated online learning opportunities
- Collaborated with faculty in the creation of courses

Committee Membership

- SPEC committee member
- Participated in Faculty meetings and contributed to Course specific meetings

Advising

- Provided advisees with support and directed them to resources

- Followed progress and continued to improve navigation of systems to benefit advisees

Scholarly Activities

- Collaborated with Dr. Felicia Jenkins and community supporters to create the Perioperative Course Summer 2021
- Created a module for the Inspire program on the topic of mentorship December 2021

Service

- Participated in Late Night Breakfast for students as a volunteer December 2021 received recognition from office of the provost
- Participated as a volunteer subject for a Health Sciences student in a grade physical activity program over an 8-week period twice weekly September 2021

a. New Course Development/Course Major Revisions

Perioperative Nursing Course Elective Summer 2021 new course

b. Courses Taught (Most recent first)

NURS 320P Clinical Lab and 330P Clinical rotations

c. Mentorship

Mentored a University a BSN student for the university of New Brunswick ,Canada

d. Advisement

Advisor role for 19 students commencing August 2021 to present

Scholarly Activity

Awards and Submissions

- Third place Scientific Poster session, Clinical Practice 17th Annual Diabetes Symposium
September 2011
- Submitted one abstract for First Annual Evidence-Based Practice and Nursing Research
Conference MUSC May 2015
- Presented poster at MUSC Neurosciences Symposium April 2015
- Submitted two Abstracts for American Association of Neurological Nurses 48th Annual Education Meeting 2016
- Western Governors University (WGU) MSN Educ. Capstone Excellence Award , August 2016

A. Community Service

Volunteer RN in Seacoast free Neurology clinic for underserved patient population in Charleston SC 2013-2015